Mrs. J. H. Byrley of Atlanta, Ga., Dead.

Dr. James S. Lock, received a telegram this morning informing him of the death of his sister, Mrs. John Henry Byrley, of Atlanta, Ga. The remains will reach here Saturday evening, and funeral services will be held at the First Methodist Episcopal Church Sunday, and interment will be in the city cemetery.

Mrs. Martha Jane Riley.

The funeral services of Mrs. Martha Jane Riley were held at the First M. E. Church Saturday morning, conducted by Rev. C. A. Bromley, assisted by Rev. S. F. Kelley, followed by interment in the City Cemetery. The large crowd present and the many beautiful floral offerings were evidence of the high esteem in which she was held in the community in which she lived.

Mrs. Martha Jane Riley was born on Lightning Creek, this county, December 9, 1857; died February 25, 1916, aged 58 years, 2 months and 16 days, exactly fourteen years since the death of her husband, William Riley, to whom she was united in marriage May 12, 1892. She was the daughter of Robert and Nannie Morris, and is survived by her father, five brothers, two sisters, two sons and two daughters.

To her relatives and friends there is a sweet promise that, though separated from the ones so near and dear to her, she is to-day in the land where pain and suffering is not known; with the angels around the throne of never ending bliss. "My mother when I learned that thou was dead, Say, wast thou conscious of the tears I shed? Hower'd thy spirit o'er thy sorrowing son, Wretched even then, life's journey just begun."

Card of Thanks.

We wish to express our sincere thanks to our friends and neighbors who assisted us during the illness and death of our dear mother, Mrs. Martha Riley.

The Children.

Some people are very much more interested in imaginary people (found in stories) than in their own children—are you?

Sam. H. Kash Chosen as Presidential Elector.

Hon. Sam H. Kash was chosen at the Republican State Convention Wednesday, as one of the two Presidential Electors at large from the State of Kentucky. His name will appear on the ballots to be voted for at the November election. We congratulate him upon being selected by the Republicans of the State for so important and honorable position.

Mr. Kash is a true blue Republican and a good campaigner.

Symphony Concerts are Society Events

The two concerts on Saturday afternoon and evening at the Opera House given by the Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra were brilliant events in society last week. The concerts were given by this famous orchestra under the local management of Mrs. William Henry Shelley, of Louisville, and Lexington people and from all over the Blue Grass and surrounding places feel much indebted to her for this rare and beautiful treat. Society was out in full for both concerts and the audiences were large and brilliant ones. All of the boxes were filled with attractive parties and there were many theater parties given by guests from Frankfort, Versailles, Georgetown, Paris, Richmond and other surrounding places. At the evening performance the audience was unusually brilliant.

The Governor and Mrs. Stanley entertained at a box party last evening, their guests including Mr. and Mrs. John Coleman, and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Van Meter, of Lexington, and Miss Mary Soaper.

The Lieut. Governor and Mrs. Black also were hosts at a box party last evening, their guests being Miss Gertrude Black, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Owens, of Barbourville, and Mrs. Roberta Sandusky, of Lexington.—Lexington Herald.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to thank our friends and neighbors for the kindness shown and assistance rendered us during the sad bereavement of our brother and assure them that it will ever be remembered.

J. A. Owens and family.

Republican County Convention Held.

The republicans of Knox county met in mass convention at the Courthouse in Barbourville Kentucky at 1 o'clock P. M. on the 26th day of February 1916, pursuant to the calls of the State Central Committee, the Congressional Committee of the 11th Congressional District of Kentucky, and the Knox County Republican Committee.

The meeting was called to order by Prof. John W. Hughes Chairman of the Republican County Committee of Knox County at 1 o'clock P. M. on the date aforesaid, and after stating the purpose of the Mass Convention, called for nominations for temporary Chairman, and thereupon S. T. Steele, nominated John M. Tinsley, as temporary chairman, and there being no other nominations he was unanimously chosen chairman of the convention.

The chairman then called for nominations for Secretary of the convention, thereupon W. H. Green nominated J. B. Campbell as Secretary of the convention, and there being no other nominations, the said J. B. Campbell was unanimously chosen secretary of this convention.

J. W. Hughes moved that the Chairman appoint a committee of five to draft and present to the convention, resolutions, and this motion was seconded by E. B. Hemphill and the motion being put, was unanimously adopted.

Thereupon, the chairman appointed John W. Hughes, W. H. McDonald, S. L. Lewis, Noah Smith, and J. B. Trospier. The Committee on Resolutions retired to draft and present resolutions, and on their absence the convention was addressed by the following: F. D. Sampson, John Collier, E. McKeehan and J. M. Robison.

The committee reported as follows:

Be it RESOLVED:

1st. We approve the call of the State Central Committee, the 11th Congressional Committee, and the Knox County Republican Committee's call for this mass convention.

2nd. We condemn the Underwood Tariff law, as it has brought disaster to American Industry and untold suffering to the laboring men of the United States, and would have bankrupted the treasury of the United States but for the alleged War Tax imposed upon the American people in time of peace, and hereby renew our faith in the protective tariff principals of the Republican party, by which prosperity has been brought, in the fullest measure to the American people, and labor has enjoyed the richest reward.

3rd. We condemn President Wilson's weak and vacillating Mexican policies. This policy in our judgement has brought about the death of more than 100 American citizens, by Mexicans shooting across the International Boundary line, and by actually invading American soil. We condemn that policy of the present administration wherein the lives and property of American citizens are endangered and destroyed with impunity by foreigners, both within and beyond our borders. In our opinion the present condition of diplomatic relations with foreign governments were due entirely to the weakness and lack of foresight on the part of President Wilson.

Called on for Address at District Meeting.

At the 11th District Republican convention held at London, Tuesday, Judge F. D. Sampson addressed the meeting in answer to a call from a number of delegates there present. His speech in expounding the principles of true Republicanism and denouncing the Democratic misrule, was well received.

Col. and Mrs. Maus Entertain at Dinner.

Yellow roses and jonquils made a pretty setting for the entertainment given by Col. and Mrs. L. M. Maus last evening, when they were the hosts at a dinner at their home in The Cromwell in honor of the Lieutenant Governor and Mrs. Black and Miss Gertrude Black. A silver basket of the flowers adorned the center of the table and the colors were accentuated by the yellow candles which burned in silver candelabra on each side of the centerpiece.

Following the dinner, a number of other guests came in for the evening and to enjoy some charming pictures of Japan, which Col. Maus and his wife had collected during their stay in that country.—The State Journal, Frankfort.

4th. Be it further resolved that the delegates from Knox county use all honorable means necessary to secure the election of J. M. Robison as one of the delegates from the 11th Congressional District, to the National Republican Convention to be held in Chicago, on the 11th day of June 1916.

Be it further resolved that the delegates from Knox county are hereby requested to use all honorable means to bring about the election of the Honorable J. S. Comer of Pulaski county as one of the delegates from the 11th Congressional District, to the Republican National Convention to be held in Chicago, on the 11th day of June 1916.

Be it further resolved that the delegates and alternates from Knox county to the Republican Congressional District Convention to be held at London on Tuesday the 29th day of February 1916, and the Republican State Convention to be held at Louisville Kentucky on the 1st day of March 1916.

Thereupon 28 delegates and 28 alternates were appointed.

Be it further resolved that the delegates of Knox county be and they are hereby instructed to vote as a unit on all names and questions and matters presented to and in both of the said Conventions.

McCreary Quits

Public Life

After thirty-two of his seventy-five years spent in public service, James B. McCreary, who recently retired from the governorship of Kentucky, announces that he is through with public office.

Mr. McCreary served six years in the Kentucky legislature and was elected governor of the state in 1875 when he was thirty-two years old. After that he was elected to the house of representative where he served twelve years and then was transferred to the other end of the capitol as a United States senator. For several years after the expiration of his senatorial term he was a private citizen, only to enter again the political field as a candidate for governor, and he is the only man on record who was twice elected governor of Kentucky after a long lapse of years.

"I look back on my first campaign for governor with a great deal of pleasure," said Governor McCreary. "It was that campaign that probably gave to the United States Supreme court bench one of its most respected and valuable members. My opponent in that fight was John Marshall Harlan. Not long after the election I had the opportunity of recommending that President Hayes appoint Harlan to the Supreme court bench."—Western Newspaper Union.

Republicans of Perry

County Opposed to Judge Faulkner

At the Republican County Convention held in Perry county on last Saturday the Republicans of that county, passed resolutions strongly opposing Judge H. C. Faulkner for Judge of the Court of Appeals. Judge Faulkner's present residence is at Hazard, Perry county, he having removed from this county to Perry two years ago.

Adopt Resolutions

Indorsing Sampson

WHEREAS, our neighbor—and fellow Republican, the Honorable Flem. D. Sampson, is a candidate at the August Primary Election for the Republican nomination for Judge of the Court of Appeals, from this district, and, WHEREAS, at Mass Meetings, representing Knox and Whitley County citizens, both Democrats and Republicans formerly held in Barbourville and at Williamsburg, Judge Sampson was unanimously indorsed for this high office.

NOW, THEREFORE, we, the Republicans of Knox County, Mass Convention assembled, believing in him and his integrity and high standing as a citizen and Judge, unhesitatingly and unqualifiedly indorse his candidacy for the Republican nomination for Judge of the Kentucky Court of Appeals of this, the seventh Appellate District, and pledge to him our support at the polls at the August Primary, and we recommend him to Republicans of the other twenty-six counties, and urge them to lend him their support.

John M. Tinsley, Chairman.
J. B. Campbell, Secretary.
Republican County Convention.

Wins $1,000 Prize.

A message was received at this office Monday morning from the Evening Telegraph, published at Philadelphia, Pa., to the effect that Mrs. Lennie Gatton, residing at Wallsend, was the winner of $1,000 in a Movie Contest Game put on by that paper and requested that some one be sent to inform her of her good luck. She was immediately notified, and, it is useless to say, was very much surprised and pleased when told she was the lucky one.

Mrs. E. M. McDonald was called to Bailey's Switch, this week on account of the illness of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. G. M. McDonald, who is thought to have typhoid.

Why He Changed His Mind

President Wilson, to the business men of St. Louis, on Thursday, thus defined his position on the tariff commission: "I have changed my mind about the advisability of having a tariff board and I have done it for this reason: Before the war began and the universal sweep of economic change set in, I believed, and I think I was justified in believing, that a tariff board was a means merely to keep alive the question of protection. Now the sweep of this change has been so universal that an unprejudiced, non-partisan board is absolutely necessary in order to find out how far and in what way the facts have changed."

Why Mr. Wilson is anxious that the question of protection shall not be kept alive is readily understood. This country believes in the protective system. Usually when that issue is raised between Republican and Democratic national candidates the Republicans win. Mr. Wilson attained to the presidency in 1912 not because of the Democratic tariff plank, but solely through Republican dissensions. If there is a straight fight this year, the protection question will be very much alive. Changes violent in character and far-reaching in their consequences have been wrought by the war. There is no doubt of that, but they will not be found to have effected economic laws or the manner in which these laws operate in different countries. So that there will be no greater necessity for a tariff commission after the war than there was before. There may be more work for it to do, a wider range of inquiries to make, etc., but the fundamental principles upon which the Democratic and Republican parties differ will remain. Nor will the commission take the tariff out of politics. Hear what the Philadelphia Record (Dem.), the ablest anti-protectionist paper in the country, says:

"This commission could not take the tariff out of politics. So long as Congress has exclusive power to fix rates of duty and public opinion is divided on the question whether the purpose of the duties should be to afford public revenue or to shut out foreign competition, the tariff will remain a political issue." Mr. Wilson has come around after long hesitation, evidently realizing that "the question of protection" cannot be killed by the simple process of ignoring it in the White House.

He Is Sorry

In one of his recent speeches President Wilson is quoted as saying: "I am sorry this is a campaign year." It is a queer remark. Probably he meant that he was sorry that in a campaign year decided sentiment should exist in his own party on the question of national defense and preparedness of the military kind. All that he has to dread on that

THE GREATEST HEALTH INSURANCE IN THE WORLD

T. P. Taylor, Prominent Louisville
Druggist, Makes Interesting
Statement

T. P. TAYLOR

"The greatest health insurance in the world is the simplest," he said. "I never could quite understand why people are so negligent in the use of the simplest of all preventives of illness. It's all a matter of keeping the bowels open. The man who carries a little box of Rexall Orderlies has got a good health policy in his pocket. I believe they are the best laxative ever prepared, and their pleasant taste appeals to men, women and children alike."

account is from his own party. In the opposite party, always the party of patriotism, there is no opposition to the policy of national defense and preparedness. But in that party there is a militant feeling on another form of preparedness—industrial preparedness. This, if only the President knew it, is the greatest cause for uneasiness on his part. The determination of the opposite party to restore protection as a vital element in the policy of preparedness may well cause President Wilson to be sorry that this is a campaign year.

Another Conversion

Joe Partin, of Swan Lake, was in to see us Monday, and while he was here told the editor that he had long since quit the Democratic party, and has cast his lot with the "Good Old Republican Party" and that he intends in the future to vote the Republican ticket. Joe is a good fellow and we welcome him into our ranks. Joe is not by himself, there are lots of others who will do the same thing in November, let the good work go on, and let us have such a victory in November that the world will know that with a protective tariff with a Republican congress and President that every thing will have the ring and gleam of gold and that prosperity has surely returned to stay.

HUSBAND RESCUED DESPAIRING WIFE

After Four Years of Discouraging
Conditions, Mrs. Bullock Gave
Up in Despair. Husband
Came to Rescue.

Catron, Ky.—In an interesting letter from this place, Mrs. Benie Bullock writes as follows: "I suffered for four years, with womanly troubles, and during this time, I could only sit up for a little while, and could not walk anywhere at all. At times, I would have severe pains in my left side."

The doctor was called in, and his treatment relieved me for a while, but I was soon confined to my bed again. After that, nothing seemed to do me any good, I had gotten so weak I could not stand, and I gave up in despair.

At last, my husband got me a bottle of Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I commenced taking it. From the very first dose, I could tell it was helping me. I can now walk two miles without its lifting me, and am doing my work."

If you are all run down from womanly troubles, don't give up in despair. Try Cardui, the woman's tonic. It has helped more than a million women, in its 50 years of wonderful success, and should surely help you, too. Your druggist has sold Cardui for years. He knows what it will do. Ask him. He will recommend it. Begin taking Cardui today.

SESSION CLOSES ON MARCH 14TH

Rules Committees to Have Charge of Bills Before General Assembly

WILLIAMS IS OUSTED

House Impeachment Proceedings Passed Despite Flight of Meyers—Tax Revenue Bill Is Presented.

Frankfort, Ky.—(Special)—Governor Stanley and his administration backers will use every effort to have passed, during the closing days of the Legislature, those bills promised in the Democratic platform.

And, it is certain that these will be given preference with the Rules Committee of both Houses in charge of those to be voted upon.

The Rules Committee of the Senate have taken charge and will control all bills to be considered by the Senate until the close of the session, which is to be Tuesday, March 11. This committee will determine the order in which the measures are to be taken up and considered. Lieutenant Governor James D. Black is the ex-officio Chairman and the members who were appointed by him are Senators W. W. Booles, Thomas A. Combs, John F. Ford, W. A. Frost, Selden R. Glenn, H. J. Overstreet, Samuel L. Robertson and G. G. Speer. They are all Democrats and the majority of them are friendly to the administration in all things.

During the last ten days of the session, the Rules Committee of the House will have charge of all bills to be considered by the House. This committee is composed of Speaker H. C. Duffy, and Representatives Glover H. Cary, R. T. Crowe, W. E. Dowling, Odle Duncan, William Duffy, Frank C. Greene, R. B. Hutchcraft, Jr., C. W. Mathers, Harry J. Meyers, S. M. O'Brien, George L. Pickett, W. A. Price and Joseph D. Pumphrey. This committee also counts a goodly majority friendly to the administration.

Bills that have passed both Houses follow:

Senate Bill No. 17, the Strickland Pickett anti-pass law, which was approved by the Governor February 10.

Senate Bill 103, the Knight bill to provide for the employment of State Inspector and Examiner Nat H. Sewell's office force.

House Bill 22, the Hobbs bill to permit cities of the second class to acquire and maintain law libraries.

House Bill No. 2, the Vance corrupt practices act.

House Bill No. 49, the Ryan act creating the office of matron of the Louisville police court.

Senator Rogers' bill No. 111 amending the adoption of school textbooks law.

House Bill No. 75 by Representative Asa B. Meratt, changing the times for holding circuit court in the Twenty-first judicial district.

Representatives of the farmers are insisting upon the enacting of a pure seed law, while Louisville seedmen appear to be opposing it with equal vigor.

The first general measure looking to reform Kentucky's revenue laws was introduced in the House by Representative Hutchcraft of Paris, has the support of the administration.

It provides that all taxpayers must swear to property lists before the Assessor or one of his deputies. A penalty is imposed on the Assessor who accepts a list not sworn to.

The measure provides for the examination of candidates for the office of Assessor by two or more members of the State Board of Equalization and Assessment and unless the candidate passes such an examination his name cannot go on the ballot for election.

The County Board of Supervisors will meet after the Assessor's work and certify to the State Board. The County Board are given greater powers to investigate the ownership of property.

The expense in connection with the State Board is increased from $6,000 to $15,000 under this bill. The backers of the bill are confident that the added revenue will justify this increase in administrative expenses.

J. E. Williams, the Republican County Judge of McCreary County, was impeached by the House of high crimes and misdemeanors, by a vote of 48 to 45.

Democratic floor leader, Harry Meyers of Covington, made a most gallant fight in his endeavor to save Judge Williams from impeachment. He protested vigorously and pleaded for a square deal. He insisted that the Democratic party in Kentucky is "too big, too great, too generous to play that kind of politics."

"The worst thing he has been charged with," said Meyers, "is that he put six Democrats in jail for six hours. I confess I have been guilty of worse things than that. I have helped to put 43 Republicans in jail and to keep them until the election was over, and if it had been necessary, I was ready to put 63 Republicans in jail to help Governor Stanley."

Meyers defied the Impeachment Committee to show any corrupt motive in any irregularity charged to Judge Williams. He declared a County Judge could not be perfect, and that the alleged irregularities imputed to Judge Williams were mistakes of the head and not the heart.

Upon motion, Speaker Duffy appointed a committee to present articles of impeachment to the Senate. If the impeachment is upheld, Judge Williams will be removed from office and the Senate may bar him from holding any office of honor, trust or profit, under the Commonwealth. In addition, Judge Williams will be liable to indictment and punishment by the regular courts.

The Semi-monthly pay bill, introduced by Representative John T. Murphy, of Covington, passed the House by a vote of 57 to 32.

Representative Greene protested against having bills taken out of their regular order and placed ahead of his anti-screen bill. The House supported Representative Murphy and the bill was reported and passed.

Representative Murphy in his speech supporting the bill declared that 18,000 or 20,000 laboring men are united in favor of the measure.

The motion of Representative Lasley to take the anti-screen bill from the orders of the day and put on its passage was defeated 46 to 11.

The bill of Representative Perry of Louisville, prescribing the manner of electing Commissioners in Jefferson County to constitute the Fiscal Court, passed the House unanimously.

The House resolution, directing the Auditor to refund to saloon keepers who were forced out of business by dry legislation their portion of the unearned license paid the state, passed the Senate 30 to 0. The resolution was called from the orders of the day by Senator Booles of Spencer County.

Petitions are being received by Solons from various counties over the State urging the passage of the bill appropriating $20,000 a year for four years to the Kentucky Illiteracy Commission.

Providing for clerks and stenographers for the Department of Education a bill passed the House of Representatives by a vote of 72 to 6.

The Court of Appeals recently decided Superintendent of Public Instruction V. O. Gilbert did not have authority to employ any of the clerks and stenographers in his office, and State Auditor Greene refused to issue warrants for the salaries of those who had been employed by Gilbert.

A grand total of $11,050 a year is provided for the employing of ten assistants which includes five clerks and five stenographers.

Representative Minor of Boyle County, succeeded in having passed his joint resolution requesting Kentucky's representatives in Congress to vote against a proposed amendment to the Federal reserve act undertaking to extend the authority of national banks so they may establish and operate branch institutions. He explained such an amendment is unfair to state banks. The resolution was adopted by a viva voce vote.

The Senate passed the bill of Senator Robertson of Louisville, to permit non-resident children to appear in stage performances by a vote of 26 to 1.

"Well, that's why I failed to get responses to so many of my letters," exclaimed a lad who had been defeated for a pageship upon reading in news papers a statement attributed to Representative John T. Murphy, of Paducah, to the effect that he had "found men in the lower house at Frankfort who cannot read or write."

The Senate passed the Knight Meyers workmen's compensation bill 31 to 2. Senators Sanders and Speer cast the dissenting votes.

A call for a Progressive State Convention, to be held in Louisville April 29, has been issued by the State Executive Committee. District mass meetings were called for April 22 to be held in the following cities, each representing a district in the order they are named: Princeton, Henderson, Bowling Green, Elizabethtown, Louisville, Covington, Lexington, Lancaster, Maysville, Pikeville and London.

In investigating the accounts of various county officers on file at the State House, assistants in the Attorney-General's office have uncovered a new form of graft. It is simple. A man is employed by the sheriff at $1 a day to go after a prisoner. He is gone ten days. That would indicate that his pay would be $10. But in a bill sent in to the state for payment the pay asked for was figured like this: Ten days of 24 hours make 240 hours; a working day is eight hours; 240 hours divided by eight hours makes 30 days; at $3 a day it would be $90. Sheriff's profit $40.

Caleb Powers Once More Studying Law

Washington. Caleb Powers, Congressman from the Eleventh District of Kentucky, is now a freshman law student at the George Washington law school in this city. Three years ago Powers started the law course, but was informed by the college authorities that his preparatory education was insufficient. He accordingly dropped out and has been going to night school to correct this deficiency.

While former student, the law class was hearing a lecture by Daniel Thew Wright, ex-judge of the Supreme Court, when the latter called to the attention of the class the fact that the Goebel case had brought out the legal responsibility of persons who instigate the commission of a crime. He was interrupted by a tall form rising in the audience and Caleb Powers, in a soft southern drawl, remarked to Judge Wright: "There is a point about that case, Judge, that I don't know, and I'd like you not to close it as an illustration to this class until you know more about the facts. I am Caleb Powers."

The Judge waived further consideration of the Goebel case. —Harlan Enterprise.

What's the Answer?

A gentleman who had been fishing was asked how many fish he had caught. He replied: "If to the number of books in the Old Testament you add the number of books in the New Testament, multiply that by number of Apostles who were present at the Transfiguration of Christ, divide by number of books written by Luke, subtract number of times the Israelites went round Jericho, multiply by number of pieces of silver Judas received for betraying the Savior; divide by number of spies Moses sent to Canaan; add number of letters in the name of the city where a man climbed to a tree to see Christ, and divide by number of Apostles who were called the sons of thunder, the answer will be number of fish caught." How many fish he caught? —A. P. S.

Republican Convention

The convention of the Republican party was one of the best ever held at Knoxville. There was a large crowd at the court house, and it seemed to be of one accord, and that was to have harmony, and to send delegates that would vote for the man who could win in November and one who would be endorsed by both wings of the Republican party. This we believe will be done, and that Hon. Chas. E. Hughes will be nominated without opposition.

"THE LONE WOLF"

By Louis Joseph Vance

What the press thinks about it: Mr. Vance buttonholes you on the first page and doesn't let you go until the end. The Paris background is interesting, especially the old rookery, Tuyen's.—Globe and Commercial Advertiser, N. Y.

Another story to keep nervous pulses jumping and set nervous eyes to watching the shadows. The hero of the tense and thrilling tale is an accomplished thief. The scene is set in the underworld of Paris and the story grips one by the throat.—Herald, Chicago.

Zestful and ingenious as anything he has yet written is Mr. Vance's new adventure story. In swift rush of sensational and thrilling dramatic episodes it is abundantly entitled to its classification as a melodrama.—The Press, Philadelphia.

Mr. Vance is at home making thrillers. "The Lone Wolf" is a big success in his particular line. The story is immensely absorbing. It is a book of events, each event a thrilling one; a book full of dramatic situations, every situation having its portion of dramatic strength.—Book News Monthly, Philadelphia.

Like all of Mr. Vance's books, the excitement is kept at high pitch throughout.—Brooklyn Eagle.

As exciting a story as one could wish.—Boston Post.

The tale is well told, with dramatic movement and vigor. It is well constructed, too, with climax and denouement rightly planned.—Louisville Evening Post.

Conservation stands sentinel over the natural resources of our country, and forbids wanton destruction of forests, mines and animal life.

Conservation multiplies the by-products of industry, and changes waste into profit. It is conservation that turns rags into miladi's dainty note paper.

It is conservation that gathers together worn out garments, discarded sheets, carpets, and similar objects which have served their useful purposes. In the General's big roofing mills, these are macerated, saturated, sliced and beaten into pulp, which finally comes out of the rollers in one continuous sheet of clean, strong roofing felt.

It is then thoroughly saturated with the General's own blend of soft asphalt and coated with a blend of harder asphalt, which keeps the inner saturation soft and prevents the drying-out process so destructive to the ordinary roofing. This explains why out-lasts other roofing; also why the General can safely guarantee it for 5, 10 or 15 years, according to plan. Experience has proved that CERTAIN-TEED will out last the period of guarantee.

Certain-teed Roofing

The General makes one third of all the rolls of roofing made in America. Because of this enormous production, and the economies due to cheap power, modern machinery and favorably located mills, the General is able to make the best roofing at the lowest cost.

CERTAIN-TEED is made in rolls; also in slate-surfaced shingles. There is a type of CERTAIN-TEED for every kind of building, with flat or pitched roofs, from the largest sky-scraper to the smallest residence or out-building.

CERTAIN-TEED is sold by responsible dealers all over the world, at reasonable prices. Investigate it before you decide on any type of roof.

Worth Careful Thought

Do you read the label to know whether your baking powder is made from cream of tartar or, on the other hand, from alum or phosphate?

Royal Baking Powder is made from cream of tartar, derived from grapes, and adds to the food only wholesome qualities.

Other baking powders contain alum or phosphate, both of mineral origin, and used as substitutes for cream of tartar because of their cheapness.

Never sacrifice quality and healthfulness for low price.

Shooting Affray near Fair Grounds

Last Saturday night, near the Fairgrounds, there was a dance given at the home of John Jones col., and as usual the evidence of white hog was plain to be seen and became plainer as the dance proceeded. A fight was started, and soon the bullets began to fly. So, after the smoke had cleared away, it was found that Stant Holman was mortally wounded, Jordan Bass was shot through the arm, Bev Love's wife was shot in the arm and Sam Mackey was hit somewhere. And Jordan Bass, it appears was the fellow who was doing the shooting, or at least he is the one who shot Holman. Holman was taken on board the train at 3:45, and taken to Knoxville, Tenn., where he was expected to undergo an operation.

Child Burned To Death

Wednesday March 1, about 2 o'clock afternoon, the little two year old boy of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Martin, on Highland Park, was seriously burned and died at 6:30 P. M. The mother of the child had gone out from the house and when she returned the accident had occurred. It is supposed to have caught from the fire in the grate, as there was no one to witness the scene. He was buried in the Johnson cemetery, Thursday afternoon.

We extend our sympathy to the bereaved family.

Sudden Death

Last Sunday morning Feb., 27, Mrs. Allie Matlock age 34, of Anchor, was overtaken by sudden death.

The Coroner was notified and was soon to the place with a jury to investigate the matter and reported a case of heart failure. Her husband was away from home, but her oldest daughter heard her up about five o'clock making a fire and then heard her cough twice and in a short time called to her and when she got to her mother, in the adjoining room she was on the bed, but she was then dead.

Mrs. Matlock is the mother of five children, but she, like other mothers had to leave them.

MORNINGS ARE HAPPIEST HOURS

Get the Spirit of the Early Day Into Your Being

Are you bright and happy in the morning?

Catarrh is the great American ailment. Its effects are far more general than usually are understood. Catarrh of the stomach and kidneys is a most frequent cause of chronic dyspepsia and Brights disease. Catarrhal conditions in the nose and throat in many cases, leads to deafness.

Even the lungs are affected because catarrh inflammation finds an open way to the lung substances through the bronchial tubes.

If you are not bright, cheerful and refreshed in the mornings, catarrh probably is the cause.

The mental and physical conditions of catarrh sufferers is pitiable but it is surprising how many people suffer from catarrh when they fully believe something else is the cause.

Catarrh can be easily detected. Some of its commonest symptoms are: dull, throbbing headaches, watery eyes, constant sniffling, dropping of mucus into the throat at night and awakening choked and half nauseated sleeplessness, dizziness, fullness, stopped up nasal passages, dryness of the membranes, pains in the stomach, side and kidney region, faulty digestion, bad breath and coated tongue.

Tanlac was created particularly to combat catarrh. Thousands are testifying daily that Tanlac has fulfilled its mission.

Tanlac may now be had in Barbourville at the Herndon Drug Co's. drug store, where its merits are explained fully.

An 8-foot Spread From a 45-inch Box

IN the Low Corn King catalogue it takes pages to tell about the good construction that backs up the "8-foot-wide spread from a narrow 45-inch box." Here the space is limited.

See the spreader and study these things: The simple worm and worm gear which drive the apron can be reversed, doubling the wear qualities. The gear is entirely enclosed, away from dust and dirt. The relation of beater and apron is just what to do the best work on the manure with the least power. Low Corn King is a steel spreader—frame, beater and wheels, driving parts—all of light, strong, compact steel. You return the apron by a convenient foot lever—no hand cranking, no getting down from seat.

There is a better spread—back up the even, satisfactory 8-foot-wide spread. Get acquainted with the Low Corn King spreader. See the local dealer who sells it.

A Hustler For Jailer

Charles H. Botner of Grays is "all the talk" of the voters in this section in the race for the Republican nomination for jailer in 1917.

He has almost the solid support of his home precinct, as well as Bertha, Wilton, Blacks, and Girdler. He has a host of relatives all over the county and they are all very actively supporting him in this race. This means that every precinct in the county will give him a good strong vote.

He numbers his friends by his acquaintances, which is a multitude.

Charlie was born and reared in this county, having spent most of his time on the farm and in the mines. He has always been a good, hard working, law-abiding citizen, of which his county is proud.

The miners of Bertha showed their confidence in him by electing him check-weighman, which position he filled to their delight and entire satisfaction.

Charlie is certainly a good mixer, a jolly, good fellow, and well liked by everybody. He is not old enough to be called by that familiar title, "Uncle", but he is so popular that he promises to be as formidable an opponent in this race for jailer, as "Uncle Charlie" was in the race for Representative.

Owens

On Tuesday February 29th, Joseph Owens, one of the county's good and useful citizens was stricken with Paralysis, and lived only a little while until the end came.

Mr. Owens was born in Rockcastle County, fifty five years ago and came to Knox County in the year of 1888, as assistant agent for the Adams Express Company, which position he held at his death. He was the Architect and builder of the Owens residence on Knox Street, which is the best frame structure in this end the State. He was a man of deep sense, and was one of the best posted men on current events in the community. He was a close student of architecture, and had the best collection of relics to be found. He was a self made man having never attended College, but, by his untiring efforts he climbed to that height of proficiency that he could perform most any duty assigned to him. He will be missed in this community, and by the family to which he belonged. He was never married, and chose to be with his brothers. He was as true to his friends as the needle is to the north star. He was buried in the City Cemetery on last Wednesday, March the 1st.

Mr. Owens, leaves two brothers, J. A. Owens, Agent for the L. & N. R. R. Co., and George Owens, baggage master, and two sisters, Mrs. J. M. Jones, Mount Vernon, and Mrs. Polly Begley, Hazard, and a large train of other relatives, among whom are Joseph Owens, Jr., Master of trains, Knoxville, Tenn., Mrs. Alice Owens, Miss Nannie Owens also of Knoxville, Tenn., all of whom once lived here and were at the funeral, and a host of friends and admirers to mourn that he should be taken away so sudden.

We extend to the bereaved family our tenderest sympathy, for we know how hard it is to lose a true and tried friend.

The democratic party is the only party on earth that can make enough soap with one game rooster to float a warship.

We would suggest that Congress make an appropriation of about fifty million dollars to provide a home for the great army of democratic politicians who will have to give up their ple counters after March 4, 1917.

John Lawson was seized with something like colic or bots the other night, and his son called the horse doctor and he is now better.

John Bolton has made a new fangled steel trap. It is said that it will sail in the air and catch crows.

Did you ever think he church collection shows up the fellow with nickel plated christianity?

A man stands monarch of all that he surveys, he is king of beasts, he can marshal an army, destroy kingdoms, burst up empires, conquer any that might dare to come in his way; yet, he will meekly surrender to a pair of laughing blue eyes, a few dimples, three or four coats of face powder, sunshining and extravagance. Don't it beat the Dickens?
